

If God came down from heaven
by
Amy Robinson

If God came down from heaven,
What would he look like?
Would he dress in funky clothing
And ride a motorbike?
Or would he be all old and wise
And have a long white beard?
Perhaps he'd look like Santa Claus.
Perhaps he'd just look weird.

If God came down from heaven
I wonder what he'd do?
Would he go round zapping people
Or parting seas in two?
Would he act like a magician
Pull a rabbit from his hat?
Or like the genie in Aladdin,
Granting wishes just like that.

If God came down from heaven,
I wonder what he'd say?
Would he be sad or angry
Or would he think the world's OK?
If I invited him to my house
Would he act like a mate
Or would he be a grumpy grown-up
And think my room's a state?

God did come down from heaven
But the people didn't see
First he was a little baby
Then he grew like you or me
He said all sorts of brilliant things
He said they were all true
He said he came because he loves us
And he said we should tell you.
